NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS. I was the night before Christmas, when all through the house

Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse; The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;
The children were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of sugar plums danced in their heads; And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap, Had just settled our brains for a long winter's When out on the lawn there arose such I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a fissh,

Tore open the shutters and threw up the The moon on the breast of the new-fallen Gave toe lustre of mid-day to objects When, what to my wondering eyes should appear, But a miniature sleigh, and eight tiny reindeer, With a little old driver so lively and quick.

I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.

More rapid than eagles his coursers they And he whistled and shouted and called them on Comet! on Cupid! on Dunder and To the ton of the porch! to the top of the wall! Now, dash away! dash away! dash away As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky. So up to the house-top the coursers they With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas,

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the The prancing and pawing of each little As I drew in my head, and was turning Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with He was dressed all in fur, from his head t his foot, And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot;

A bundle of toys he had flung on his back.

And he looked like a peddler just opening hi pack. His eyes—how they twinkled; his dimples how merry ! His cheeks were like roses, his nose like cherry I His droll little mouth was drawn up like And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow; The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth, And the smoke it encircled his head like wreath: wresth; He had a broad face and a little round belly, That shook when he laughed like a bowl full of jelly. He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself.

A wink of his eye and a twist of his head, Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;

dreac;
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings, then turned with a jork.

And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose.
He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a

And away they all flew like the down of thistle, But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight,

"Happy Christmas to all and to all a Good night."
